A QUOTE FOR THE FUTURE

"It strikes me that designing is imagining something different than the current state of things and exploring the implications of that idea. If a designer has no more ideas than one, or if a designer never considers anything that turns out to be a choice worth rejecting, then that designer is barely worth of the title."

– Gunner Swanson

ATTITUDE FOR THE FUTURE

WISDOM FOR THE FUTURE

Do good work and do the things you want to be doing; even if that means making less $$$ to do more interesting work.

A SAFETY-NET/GOOD NEWS FOR THE FUTURE

Sometimes Matt & Craig hire interns.

Relax, it's just design.
